Case No. 8:13CR196

ORDER

This case is before the court on the defendant Torrie D. Caesar's Motion to Review Detention (#20). The defendant moves the court for an order directing Pretrial Services to screen the defendant for placement at a halfway house.

The defendant is charged in a two-count indictment with transportation with intent to promote prostitution and inducement to travel for prostitution. On June 4, 2013 the court entered an Order of Detention (#15) finding the defendant both a flight risk and a danger, noting his significant prior criminal record including six prior felony convictions, two for prostitution (2008-2010). Upon review of the detention order and the defendant's Pretrial Services report (#7), I find the defendant's plan for release to a halfway house fails to overcome the court's concerns as to flight and danger and that no single condition of release or combination of conditions of release will mitigate those concerns.

IT IS ORDERED that defendant's Motion to Review Detention (#20) is denied without hearing.

Dated this 16th of July 2013.
